SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORK.

The House-to-House Visitation to Be Made Next Month.

The "House-to-house Visitation" of Mason county, in behalf of the Kentucky Sunday school Union, will be made Sat urday, October 30th, 1896.

Let every one enter heartily into the Sunday-school work and great and good results will be accomplished.

We hope that the census will show a better state of affairs than that which ex-ists in our sister county of Fleming, which we publish below:

There are in Fleming county 6,607 white persons over 21 years old; 4,830 of them are Church members and 1,475 of them are in the Sunday-school, leaving s balance of 1,777 who are not Church members and 5,132 not in the Sunday-
